Indonesia continues to be the favoured short-term holiday destinations for Western Australian residents. Of the total of 19,410 departures for October 1997, 9,720 or 50% chose Indonesia as their holiday destination.

Compared with October 1996, departures of holidaymakers increased by 21% overall. The United Kingdom and Ireland and Singapore were the only countries to record decreases, by 1% and 4% respectively, in the number of short term visitors from Western Australia.
